CSW67 Joint Side Event for Papua New Guinea, Australia and UN-Women

Theme: "Harnessing women's and girls' digital and technological innovative talent for gender transformative nation-building"

Date and Time: Friday, 10 March 2023, 1:15 pm – 2:45 pm, Conference Room B,
United Nations Headquarters, New York

Objectives: This event will feature the experiences and challenges facing women and girls in Papua New Guinea in the Information and Communication Technology (ICT) sector as they strive to harness the digital age to transform the country's sustainable development agenda, as equal partners in nation building. It will also leverage global support for gender-sensitive and inclusive ICT environment that fosters gender equality and empowerment in the country.

Format: A panel discussion led by Honourable Jason Peter, Minister for Community Development, Youth and Religion of Papua New Guinea and contributions from the Papua New Guinea National Information and Communication Technology authorities; representatives of the private sector and civil society organisations involved in the ICT sector in Papua New Guinea and development partners, including, Australia and UN-Women. This will be followed by an interactive dialogue moderated by Mr. Fred Sarufa, Deputy Permanent Representative of Papua New Guinea to the United Nations.
